

From a low-key extension of your living space to a full multi-level outdoor paradise, use this sheet to get your biggest ideas on paper and into the hands of your contractor to get the conversation rolling.

For Entertaining: You'll want plenty of seating and a space that's easy to navigate and also think about ways to design in smaller areas for private conversations.

For Outdoor Cooking: Allow the grill to be your centerpiece, or even consider designs that incorporate prep surfaces, utensil storage and seating so you can show off your culinary chops!

For A Cozy Getaway: Comfortable spaces and a homely feel are the goals for curating your perfect backyard getaway.

For Family Play: Design easy transitions between your home, your deck and your backyard to create the perfect play areas. Don't forget highly slip-resistant deck boards!
